

Enniskillen Island Town is transformed into a giant art gallery and chess board hosting 64 black and white steel chess cubes which display the world's exclusive 32 piece chess set devoted to the characters and props from the plays and prose of Nobel Laureate Samuel Beckett. Beckett attended Enniskillen's Portora Royal School from 1920-23. The bronze chess artworks will be in their starting positions (see overleaf) each year from January to Good Friday and will be 'played' by hooded figures at three calendar points: Opening Game on Good Friday (Beckett's Birthday) weekend, Middle Game in August (Happy Days Festival) and Endgame December 22nd (Beckett's death day). View any day of the year (see restrictions overleaf). See the game at play #beckettmoves
